About ELSA

The European Law Students' Association (ELSA) is the world's largest independent, non-profit, non-political student network run by and for law students and recent graduates.

ELSA comprises of a membership of over 50,000 students and recent graduates who are interested in law and have demonstrated commitment to international matters. ELSA operates primarily through its local groups, which are located at more than 300 universities throughout 44 countries in Europe.

ELSA provides opportunities for its members to learn about other other cultures and legal systems in a spirit of critical dialogue.

Student Trainee Exchange Programme

The Student Trainee Exchange Programme (STEP) is ELSA's legal traineeship programme enabling law students and young lawyers to gain first-hand legal and cultural experience from another country and legal system.

Participating in STEP as an employer is a simple and effective way of attracting young internationally-minded ambitious lawyers from 44 European countries. Having a STEP trainee working for you is an opportunity for innovation and growth, contributing towards a diverse working environment.

Visit the STEP Portal and see who ELSA is already cooperating with:

How can you participate?

Participation in STEP: free of charge – there are no application or participation fees involved at any point.

Duration of the traineeship: from 2 weeks to 24 months – it is all up to your preferences and needs.

Compensation: all providers must provide remuneration for the trainee – the exact amount is dependent on your capacity and best judgment.

The trainee profile: the requirements and specifications are set by you (education level, language skills, and legal skills)

Application administration: the whole process is streamlined and administered by ELSA.
